ROOTED CUTTINGS

1941

POLLYANNA
Description on Next Page

BAUR-STEINKAMP & CO.
P. O. STATION A INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

We will soon be ready to begin propagating the thirty carnation varieties listed below. Each variety has been selected for its superiority or its place in the carnation market. There are show varieties and "bread and butter" varieties, standard varieties for the large producer and novelties for the retail grower. We believe that we have the best assortment we have ever presented.

Each cutting is treated with potassium permanganate and rooted in steam sterilized sand that is changed after every lot. The stock plants are sprayed with Bordeaux both in the field and in the benches. Every precaution is taken to insure your receiving only the best disease-free cuttings.

The cost of the cutting is a small part of the total cost of the crop and yet the cutting is so important in determining the success of the crop. For this reason special care should be taken in selecting the cuttings where a few cents more invested may mean many dollars return on the finished crop.

POLLYANNA

For some time there has been a persistent demand for a variety in the salmon flesh color which will compare favorably in quality with the leading commercials and yield sufficiently to be profitable to grow. In our new variety "Pollyanna" we believe that we have it. Being a seedling from Light Pink Abundance crossed with a seedling variety insures its productiveness, the growth being somewhat sturdier and slightly shorter in stem. The bloom is good sized and symmetrical and keeps exceptionally well. The calyx does not split. The color is a good Laddie shade of salmon flesh which holds its freshness late into summer. We recommend Pollyanna to the discriminating grower who strives for quality along with productiveness. It makes fine plants in the field and transplants readily.

Pollyanna will be sold under Patent (pending) with our usual propagating privilege granted to purchasers at $3.00 per dozen, $15.00 per 100, $125.00 per 1,000. We are booking orders now.
